I affirm the Magisterium of the Church and consider myself a member in good standing in the Church. I also assure that my life is in conformity with the teaching of the Church, including the teaching on married life.

I have read and fully agree with the guidelines, norms and procedures associated with being an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion in our parish. I am also familiar with the dress code requirements for my ministry. I promise to fully comply with all that is expected of me in this role.

I'm aware of my need to participate in ongoing theological and spiritual formation, on a regular basis, for this holy and important undertaking.

I promise to spend at least one hour per week in front of the Blessed Sacrament and will pray for an increased veneration to Our Lord Jesus Christ in the Eucharist. I will also pray that I will conduct myself with dignity and humility as a minister of the Blessed Sacrament.
